

Directory

Record Number:

241891

Date Added: 16-

11-2013

GRENAU / GRENOT /
LAVIOLETTE, Claude

Date modified: 12-

11-2019

Migrant

Place of origin: Paris, 75056, Seine

Current location: Paris

Date of birth: Circa 1724

First Canadian record: 1754

Occupation on arrival: Sergeant of the Marine troops

Marital Status: Married

First spouse: Marie-Clothilde Delage

Date of marriage: 1750-04-14

Wedding Venue: Montreal (Notre-Dame)

Parents

Father's name: Antoine GRENOT

Mother's name: Jeanne Dubellay

Parents' wedding date: 08-04-1712 cm

Place of the parents' marriage: Me Charles Dupuys, Paris (Seine)

INSEE code: 75056

Father's Profession: Master Roaster

Additional Information

Remarks: His father, Antoine Grenot, bourgeois of Paris, master roaster in Paris, living in rue Neuve des Petits Champs, parish of St-Roch, widower, and Marie-Jeanne Dubellay (François Dubellay, master dyer in Paris, and Françoise Bonnet) living in Paris, rue de la Pelleterie, parish of St-Jacques-de-la-Boucherie. His father died before the inventory after death of 23-05-1733. Two brothers and a sister: Jean-Antoine and Françoise-Achille (twins) b. in Paris (St-Roch) on 15-02-1716; Charles b. 1717. His sister is not mentioned in the inventory in 1733.

Identification of the migrant: DGFC, vol. 4, p. 373

Reference:

Researchers: Jean-Paul Macouin
